"SECRETS TO MY COACHING SUCCESS:

A CONVERSATION WITH FORMER ASU COACH, LINDA VOLLSTEDT"

Tuesday, July 30th, 2013

7:00-8:30pm EDT

Two (2) LPGA Certification Units will be awarded.

Legendary Coach Linda Vollstedt will share her experience and insight that contributed to outstanding team success during her Women's Golf Team coaching career at Arizona State University.

- An interview format will allow Linda to talk "all things coaching" and have Q and A with participants.
- Coaches, come learn from one of the most successful coaches of all time.
- Teachers, join the conversation to learn what will help your student athletes that play or hope to play college golf.

Linda Vollstedt served as the ASU Women's Golf Coach for 21 Years. She led the Sun Devils to an NCAA record six National Championships while coaching 42 All-Americans and sending 22 players to the LPGA Tour. She is one of the Top 10 College Coaches of the 20th Century and is a member of numerous Halls Of Fame, including the International Women's Sports Foundation Hall of Fame and The Arizona Sports Hall of Fame. She is a longtime LPGA Class A T&CP Member who has served as the President of the Western Section and is an invaluable contributor to the LPGA National Education Program.

Deb Vangellow is an LPGA Master Professional and the Director of Instruction at Sweetwater Country Club in Houston, Texas. She is also a former Division 1 Women's Golf Coach and the 2012 LPGA National Teacher of The Year. Deb is a nationally ranked teacher by the LPGA and Golf Digest Woman as a "Top 50" Teacher; a Golf Digest and GOLF Magazine "Top Regional Teacher;" a US KIDS GOLF "Top 50 Kids Teacher;" and a GRAA "Top Growth Of The Game Professional." Deb serves as the National Vice President of the LPGA Teaching and Club Professionals and is a longtime instructor of the LPGA National Education Program.
