Professional

Career

- In 2008, led the U.S. Handa Cup Team to their third-consecutive victory over the World Team in the annual team, match-play event on The Legends Tour.
- Owns 88 tournament titles, more than any other professional golfer in history, male or female.
- Was LPGA Tour's leading money winner eight times (1965-68, 1970-73).
- Is a seven-time LPGA Player of the Year (1966-69, 1971-73).
- Is a seven-time winner of the Vare Trophy (1965-67, 1969-72), the most in LPGA history.
- Competed in 26 sudden-death playoffs in her career.
- In 2005, officially retired from competitive golf after competing in the BJ's Charity Classic, an event on the Women's Senior Golf Tour.
- In 1996, competed in the Chrysler-Plymouth Tournament of Champions and the NabiscoDinahShore.
- In 1995, competed in the Chrysler-Plymouth Tournament of Champions and finished tied for 35th.
- In 1985, recorded her last official victory and the 88th of her career at the United Virginia Bank Classic on May 12.
- In 1983, tied Sam Snead's record of 84 official professional golf victories at the Women's Kemper Open with a 40-foot putt on the 72nd hole; recorded her 11th LPGA career hole-in-one at the Henredon Classic; holds the LPGA all-time record for most holes-in-one in a career.
- Between 1962 and 1982, won 82 LPGA titles; her win at the CPC International in 1982, which was her 82nd victory, tied her with fellow LPGA Tour Hall of Fame member Mickey Wright for the most number of wins; won the Lady Michelob to surpass Wright.
- In 1981, her third-place finish at the U.S. Women's Open made her the first player in the history of the LPGA to surpass the $1 million mark in career earnings.
- In 1975, became the seventh member of the LPGA Tour Hall of Fame.
- In 1970, won the Orange Blossom Classic for the third year in a row, becoming the fourth player in LPGA history to win the same event three consecutive times (a total of eight players have now accomplished that feat).
- In 1968, carded a career-low 62 (-7) in the third round of the Holiday Inn Classic, which she won; the 62 tied Mickey Wright's 62 (-9) at the 1964 Tall City Open as the lowest third round in LPGA history (Grace Park shot 61 in the third round at the 2004 Welch's/Fry's Championship to break the record) and lowest final round by a winner in LPGA history (Juli Inkster and Annika Sorenstam tied the latter record in 2003 and 2006, respectively).
- In 1967, won her 30th career LPGA title at the Raleigh Ladies Invitational at the age of 27 years, 6 months and 27 days; is the second-youngest player to reach the 30-win milestone (Mickey Wright is the youngest).
