

2003 Results

The 2003 Solheim Cup, the eighth staging of the event, was held for the first time in Scandinavia, at Barsebäck Golf and Country Club in Malmö, Sweden, Sept. 12-14. Once again featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the European Team dominated the matches from start to finish. Led by Swede Catrin Nilsmark, who captained her team from crutches due to a ruptured disk in her back that made walking almost unbearable, the European Team claimed the Cup on home soil for the third time.

The superior shot-making exhibited by both sides delighted the first sold-out crowd in Solheim Cup history, and the more than 100,000 fans had much to cheer about right from the start as the European Team won three of the four morning foursomes matches on day one and halved the fourth. As in years past, however, the U.S. Team rallied in the four-ball format that afternoon to close the gap to 4-1/2 to 3-1/2. But as the sun rose over the shores of Öresund on day two, it was again Europe's time to shine. The home team won three of four points in the morning foursomes matches, then pounced as the U.S. Team uncharacteristically struggled in the afternoon four-balls, earning two crucial points to take a 9-1/2 to 6-1/2 lead. The final four-ball match was one of the most competitive and memorable matches in Solheim Cup history, with Suzann Pettersen and Annika Sorenstam carding two dramatic birdies on the final two holes to defeat Kelly Robbins and Laura Diaz, 1 up. The win gave Europe the spark it needed for Sunday's singles matches, a format typically dominated by the Americans.

Needing to win only five of the 12 singles matches in order to reclaim the Cup, Europe wasted no time on Sunday morning. Janice Moodie, Sophie Gustafson, Iben Tinning and Annika Sorenstam all posted European blue on the leaderboards by winning their matches. The 2003 Solheim Cup ended when Catriona Matthew defeated Rosie Jones on the 17th hole of only the sixth match. Five more matches were still being completed, but once Jones missed her birdie try and then conceded Matthew's nine-foot birdie putt, it was all over. Three of the five remaining matches were conceded to the European Team once the Cup was secured, giving the Europeans a 17-1/2 – 10-1/2 win, the largest margin of victory since the U.S. Team won the inaugural event 11-1/2 – 4-1/2 in 1990.

Annika Sorenstam added an exclamation mark to her already stellar 2003 season with a 4-1-0 record, giving her 17-1/2 points in her Solheim Cup career. Sorenstam is now tied with Laura Davies as the event's all-time leading points earner. The overall score of The Solheim Cup now stands at 5-3, favoring the United States. The European Team has won three of the four events contested on its home soil.

2002 Results

The 2002 Solheim Cup, the seventh staging of the event, was held at Interlachen Country Club in Edina, Minn., Sept. 20-22. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the U.S. Team staged a thrilling come-from-behind victory to regain the Cup and keep its untarnished record on U.S. soil intact.

It was an event of sudden swings and lead changes, as well as one of the most closely contested Solheim Cups ever. Europe won three of the four morning foursomes matches on Friday, but the U.S. Team rallied to win three of the four four-ball matches in the afternoon to tie the competition at 4-4 after the first day. The home team's momentum carried over into the morning foursomes matches on Saturday, where it won three of four matches to take a 7-5 lead. But the tide turned again in the afternoon as the Europeans swept the four-ball matches to take a commanding 9-7 lead into the final day.

The U.S. Team, led by Captain Patty Sheehan and Assistant Captain Jane Geddes, once again showed its strength in the singles matches on Sunday, winning seven of 12 matches and halving three. Wendy Ward, who took world number-one Annika Sorenstam to 18 holes, earned a key half-point. In the final match of the day, Rosie Jones clinched the Cup for the U.S. Team with a par putt on the 15th hole, giving the U.S. a 15-1/2 – 12-1/2 victory.

Laura Davies earned two points for the European Team and became the all-time leading points earner in Solheim Cup competition (16) over Dottie Pepper (14), who qualified for the U.S. Team but was unable to compete due to injury. Carin Koch continued her stellar Solheim Cup play, posting a 4-0-1 record to compliment her 3-0-0 record from the 2000 event. Koch's only blemish to a perfect record came in the singles matches when she halved with veteran Beth Daniel after the outcome of the event was already decided.

2000 Results

The 2000 Solheim Cup, the sixth staging of the event, was held at Loch Lomond Golf Club, Oct. 6-8, in Alexandria by Luss, Scotland. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the European Team captured the Cup from the defending U.S. Team by a score of 14-1/2 – 11-1/2.

After posting an unprecedented 4-0 record in the morning foursomes matches, the European Team, captained by Dale Reid and Assistant Captain Pamela Wright, took a commanding three-point lead after the first day of foursomes matches. Europe widened its lead to five points following the second day of play by winning four of the six four-ball matches.

The U.S. Team, led by Captain Pat Bradley and Assistant Captain Debbie Massey, fought back on the final day of play, winning seven of the 12 singles matches, but fell short of the 13 points it needed to retain the Cup. Carin Koch made a 10-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole of the second-to-last match that clinched the victory for Europe.

The last time Europe had won The Solheim Cup was in 1992, when the competition was first played in Scotland.

1998 Results

The 1998 Solheim Cup, the fifth staging of the event, was held at Muirfield Village Golf Club, Sept. 18-20, in Dublin, Ohio. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the European-born players from the European Ladies' Professional Golf Association (ELPGA), the United States retained the Cup by defeating the European Team, 16-12.

The U.S. Team, captained by Judy Rankin, had the lead going into the final day, but the European Team mounted a strong effort, winning six of the singles matches outright. Sherri Steinhauer's putt to win her match against Catriona Matthew, 3&2, clinched the U.S. Team's title. Meg Mallon, playing in the day's final match, conceded the 18th hole to Sophie Gustafson to halve the match.

Tammie Green became the first pregnant Solheim Cup competitor, and Dottie Pepper was the only player to go undefeated during the three-day competition. Attendance records for The Solheim Cup were set every day of the competition, as well as for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies.

1996 Results

The fourth staging of the biennial trans-Atlantic women's professional team match-play competition between the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET), the 1996 Solheim Cup was played at the Marriott St. Pierre Hotel & Country Club in Chepstow, Wales, from Sept. 20-22, 1996.

The U.S. Team successfully defended its possession of the Waterford crystal trophy bringing the overall, four-year competition score to 3-1. The U.S. Team pulled out its victory on the third and final day of competition by winning 10 out of 12 singles matches, bringing the 1996 competition's final point total to 17-11.

For the first time, The Solheim Cup featured two teams of 12 players. The first and second day's play featured four foursomes matches in the morning and four four-ball matches in the afternoon. The competition culminated on the third day with 12 singles matches.

1992 Results

At the 1992 Solheim Cup at the Dalmahoy Hotel Golf and Country Club in Edinburgh, Scotland, Oct. 2-4, 1992, the European Team outplayed the U.S. Team on all three days of competition. The Europeans, representing the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET), scored an 11-1/2 to 6-1/2 victory over the U.S. players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour. At the conclusion of the second running of The Solheim Cup, the WPGET had avenged its 1990 loss and became the new holder of the beautiful Waterford crystal trophy.

The first day's play comprised four alternate shot, foursomes matches. The second round included four four-ball matches, whereby the best score from each team counted on each hole. The competition culminated on the final day with 10 singles matches.

1990 Results

The 1990 Solheim Cup was the first staging of the biennial trans-Atlantic women's professional team match-play competition between the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET). A milestone in the history of women's professional golf, the event was played over the Tom Fazio-designed Lake Nona Golf Club in Orlando, Fla., from Nov. 16-18, 1990. The United States scored a resounding victory against Europe, defeating the WPGET 11-1/2 to 4-1/2.

The first day's play featured four alternate shot, foursomes matches. The second round included four four-ball matches, where the best score from each team counted on each hole. The competition culminated on the final day with eight singles matches.

About The Solheim Cup sponsor

In addition to The Solheim Cup, which is named after Karsten Solheim and his family, Karsten Manufacturing Corporation sponsors the PING Junior Solheim Cup. Founded by Karsten and Louise Solheim, the Karsten Manufacturing Corporation is a 29-year sponsor of the LPGA. As the makers of PING golf equipment, the Solheim family continues to ensure the same superior workmanship today that they built into their original clubs more than 45 years ago. The company's goal is to be the unquestioned industry leader in innovation, design, quality and service. Now under the direction of John Solheim, Karsten and Louise's youngest son, the company continues in its efforts to manufacture the highest quality of golf equipment. The PING name is known the world over. Besides its presence in the United States, PING markets PING custom-fit and custom-built golf equipment to more than 70 countries.
