

Pam Barnett

Tour Status: Retired
Became Professional: 1966
Career Earnings: $110,319
Lowest Career Round: 68
Tour Victories: (1) 1971, Southgate Open

Amateur

Pam was a dominant figure in junior and amateur golf in the Carolinas, twice winning the Carolina Junior and winning the Linville, N.C. Invitational three times. She also won the North Carolina Women's Amateur title in 1961.

Professional

Career Highlights

Pam had a tough rookie season after joining the Tour in April of 1966, but made great progress the following year with a number of finishes in the top ten. She had her best year in 1971, when she won almost $19,000 and one tournament, the Southgate Open.

Personal

5'5", brunette, brown eyes...Started playing golf at age 6...Is known as a long hitter.

Barnett's LPGA Record

(Year, number of events, best finish, money, rank, scoring average)

1966	24	T-13	LPGA Championship	$ 971.50	39	79.03
1967	28	T-5	Two-times	5,016.50	26	75.95
1968	32	T-2	Willow Park Inv.	8,239.00	25	75.74
1969	29	T-4	Orange Blossom	9,971.50	21	75.79
1970	20	2	Cincinnati Open	10,034.67	17	74.71
1971	21	1	Southgate Open	18,801.15	8	74.11
1972	28	T-2	USCA Women's Open	17,572.87	17	74.86
1973	33	T-6	Colgate Dinah Shore	16,880.30	32	75.46
1974	28	T-3	Lawson's LPGA	9,309.63	46	76.60
1975	23	T-6	Crosby Int'l Classic	7,401.44	49	75.43
1976	21	16	Burdine's Invitational	5,080.87	70	76.58
1977	7	T-32	Mayflower Classic	1,340.00	100	76.35
1978	2	T-53	Civitan Open			76.14