Kay McMahon receives Two Awards from the NENY PGA Teacher of the Year 2009 & the President's Plaque

ALBANY, NY- April 28, 2009 –Kay McMahon was named Teacher of the Year 2009 by the Northeastern New York Professional Golfers' Association of America (NENY PGA), and received the President's Plaque for extraordinary and exemplary contributions and achievements in player development for the growth of the game. The 2009 NENY PGA Special Award Winners were being recognized among their PGA peers for their special achievements and were announced at the NENY PGA section's Spring Meeting that took place on Monday, April 20th at Columbia Golf & Country Club in Claverack, NY.

McMahon, a PGA member since 1986 and an LPGA member since 1977, is the Director of Golf Instruction and owner of eduKaytion golf, noted as a premier golf education company located throughout the Berkshires and New York. McMahon is also a Past National President of the LPGA Teaching and Club Professional Membership, was the 1995 LPGA National Teacher of the Year, has been recognized by leading golf magazines in various categories as a Top Teacher, and most recently in 2006 and 2008 was a nominee to the LPGA T&CP Hall of Fame. McMahon, the only woman in the NENY PGA section, expressed great excitement about being honored by her peers as the 2009 Teacher of the Year, and was also very surprised, and pleased to receive the President's Plaque.

Over the past eight years, McMahon established and successfully directs eduKaytion golf, dedicated to consistent and quality golf instruction with locations at Egremont Country Club, Great Barrington; Skyline Country Club, Pittsfield, MA; The Range, North Adams; The Town of Colonie Golf Course, Albany, NY. eduKaytion golf offers year-round private lessons using computerized state-of-the-art video/DVD equipment, adult and junior group classes and camps, participates in many Play Golf America events, and offers many free clinics throughout the year.
