

Sally Austin, Chapel Hill, NC

- Teaching professional at Chapel Hill Country Club
- UNC Chapel Hill Women's Golf Coach for 16 years; before that, the Assistant Coach. Started the team there as a player.
- My favorite things about golf: the people I meet and friendships I've formed.

Louise Ball, Millis, MA

- Owner and Director of Instruction, Tennessee Golf Academy, Gettysvue CC, Knoxville, TN
- LPGA Class A member
- LPGA*USGA Girls Golf Site Director
- Claim to fame: It took me two years to make my first hole in one, and it took my Dad, who taught me the game, 50 years to make his (which I witnessed!).
- My favorite thing about golf: The people it has brought into my life.

Beth Brown, St. Augustine, FL

- Director of Curriculum & Research, The First Tee
- 20 years of experience in the golf industry. LPGA Class A member since 2002.
- Ph.D. in Education from the University of Kansas.
- Assistant Women's Golf Coach, University of Kansas
- Consulted with high school, collegiate and professional golfers.

Marlene Davis, Williamsville, NY

- Golf Instructor: Paddock Chevrolet Golf Dome, Brighton Driving Range, Buffalo Tournament Club
- LPGA Class A member (25 Years)
- Past Champion: LPGA T&CP National Championship
- Claim to Fame: Author, LPGA/USGA Girl's Golf Handbook
- My favorite thing about golf: Helping students find the "Sweet Spot."

Dr. Jean Harris, Hollywood, FL

- Teaching Professional at Sun City, Hilton Head Island, SC
- Member of the LPGA for 37 years. Master Professional since 1998. LPGA SE Section Teacher of the Year in 2006. Named a "50 Best Women Teacher" by Golf Digest in 2010. Named Honorable Mention for US Kids Golf in 2013.
- Claim to fame: currently teaching golf to students ages 7 to 102!
- My favorite thing about golf: It_is the game of a lifetime that I can play with my grandchildren.

Karen Palacios Jansen, Mooresville, NC

- Director of Instruction, Swing Blade Enterprises, Inc.
- Voted 2008 LPGA National and Southeast Section Teacher of the Year.
- Voted by Golf for Women Magazine as one of America's "Top 50 Instructors" for 11 straight years
- Claim to Fame: Developed "Cardiogolf" Golf Fitness Program
- My favorite thing about golf: Getting to be outside!

Teri Johnson, Indiatlantic, FL

- Owner and Director of Instruction at Grasshopper Golf
- LPGA and PGA Class A professional
- TPI certified, U.Ss Kids Golf certified, SNAG certified
- Recipient of Top 50 US Kids Teacher 2012, honorable mention.
- Claim to fame: My children
- My favorite thing about golf: Being in the sun!

Wendy Kern, Harrisonburg, VA

- Teaching Professional at Mulligans Golf Center
- LPGA Class A member since 2006.
- Her passion: growing the game of golf for women and juniors.
- Director: Girls Golf Club of Harrisonburg
- My favorite thing about golf: how much fun it is to be outside with friends or by myself and enjoy such a beautiful environment.

Kathy Knadler, Phoenix, AZ

- LPGA-USGA Girls Golf of Phoenix, Director/Junior Golf Association of Arizona
- Her passion: creating rewarding and memorable experiences for junior girls through the game of golf.
- My favorite thing about golf: the life-long friendships made through golf—the most treasured relationships.

Dona Lerner, Chapel Hill, NC

- Director of Instruction, The Preserve and Chapel Ridge Golf Clubs
- Claim to Fame: U.S. Kids Master Kids Teacher
- My favorite thing about golf: The memories I will always have of myself and my father

Kelly McCammon, Tahlequah, Ok

- Vice President, SNAG Golf
- Master SNAG trainer
- Member of the Player Development Committee for Golf 20/20.
- Class A PGA professional since 1996

Nancy McDaniel, Oakland, CA

- Head women's golf coach, University of California, Berkeley
- Claim to fame: On the team that won the Oregon State High School Basketball Championship, LaSalle High School, my senior year.
- My favorite thing about golf is that no two shots are the same and it is played outdoors!

Mary Beth McGirr, Roanoke, VA

- Director of Programming/Instruction, The First Tee, Roanoke Valley
- LPGA Master Professional member
- Recognized multiple times by Golf for Women and other golf magazines as one of the top teachers in the US.
- Claim to fame: inducted into both my H.S. and college Halls of Fame (both for basketball!)
- My favorite thing about Golf: the thrill of a perfectly struck shot...simply awesome!

Karen Nicoletti, Myrtle Beach, SC

- Owner, Nicoletti Golf Academy at Arcadian Shores
- Claim to fame: Was a child actress and on Little House on the Prairie
- My favorite thing about golf: Helping people achieve their goal and making them feel good!

Carol Preisinger, Johns Island, SC

- Director of Instruction, Kiawah Island Club
- LPGA Master Professional, 1998 National Teacher of the Year
- GOLF Magazine Top 100 Teacher, and Golf Digest Top 50 Best Women Teachers
- Claim to fame: Authored "Golf's Abundant Elements," written about my dad, George Preisinger.
- Favorite thing about golf: Reading greens and making putts!

- Nancy Lopez Golf Sales Rep. /LPGA golf instructor
- Claim to fame: Teaching juniors golf and surfing! Surf 'n Turf!
- My favorite thing about golf: Making long putts. Very exciting!

Kate Tempesta, New York City, NY

- Founder, Co-Owner, Partner and President of Fun, Urban Golf Academy
- LPGA Class A member, Director of the Junior Golf Program at Montauk Downs
- SNAG Master Trainer, a U.S. Kids Golf Certified Instructor and Top 50 Kids Teacher, TPI Certified Golf Fitness Professional. Golf Digest's Best Golf Teachers in New York State (2012), 50 Best Women Teachers in America (2012) and "Top Young Instructor" (2010, 2012); Golf Magazine "40 Most Influential People in Golf under 40."

Eve Vanderweele, Charleston, SC

- Head of Instruction the Golf Club at Briars Creek, Johns Island, SC and Assistant Golf Coach, The College of Charleston
- Born and raised in Poughkeepsie, NY; now from Charleston, SC
- Claim to Fame: Hall of Fame, The College of Charleston
- My favorite thing about golf: Golf parallels life. It is a game that represents true character.

Abby Welch, Charleston, SC

- Tommy Cuthbert Golf Learning Center at Kiawah Island Golf Resort
- LPGA/PGA Class A member
- Golf Digest Top 40 Under 40 Golf Instructor (2011-2013)
- My favorite thing about golf: Chipping! It is a lot of fun to try to figure out all the ways to get the ball in the hole from a short distance, and if you get it in you don't have to putt!

Nicole Weller, Savannah, GA

- Head Teaching Professional at The Landings Club
- LPGA Class A member
- Author of Stick to Sports: Let's Play Golf
- My favorite thing about golf: Love having a golf course as my office!