Miyazato

(Mee-ka Me-uh-ZAH-toh) Birthdate: October 10, 1989 Hometown: Okinawa, Japan Resides: Bradenton, Fla.

Rookie Year: 2009

LPGA Career Victories: 1 (2012 Safeway Classic

Presented by Coca-Cola) Career Earnings: $2,584,114

2012 in a Navada II

2012 in a Nutshell

- 20 events, 17 cuts made, $1,098,749 (11), 1 victory, 8 additional top-10 finishes
- Became a Rolex First-Time Winner at the Safeway Classic and the third Japanese player to win the event, joining Ai Miyazato (2010) and Ayaka Okamoto (1986)
- Crossed the $1 million mark in season earnings for the first time in her career

Career Highlights

- Tallied a career-high nine top-10 finishes in 2012
- Won the 2010 Japan Women's Open on the JLPGA
- Carded a career-low 62 in the third round of the 2009 LPGA Corning Classic
- Turned professional in 2008 after she tied for 12th at the 2008 LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament
- Won back-to-back Japan Junior Championships in 2006-07
- The youngest winner of a Japan Amateur Women's Championship at 14 years, 8 months
- In 2006, she won the 15-17 girls' division of the Callaway Golf Junior World Golf Championships at Torrey Pines North Course

@mikachin1010

www.mika-miyazato.com

Get to know Mika...

- In 2011, Mika donated all of her earnings from each major on both the LPGA and JLPGA Tours to the Red Cross to help in the relief effort for the earthquake and tsunami that struck Japan in March. Also helped the Makeruna Nippon (Never Give Up Japan) effort with LPGA players Momoko Ueda and Ai Miyazato
- The first concert she ever went to was Usher, who is also her most frequently listened to artist on her iPod
- If she had one more practice round on the LPGA Tour she would chose to play with Ai Miyazato, Yani Tseng and Annika Sorenstam

