Seo

(Hee-kyung So)

Birthdate: July 8, 1986

Hometown: Seoul, South Korea Resides: Seoul, South Korea

Rookie Year: 2011

LPGA Career Victories: 1* (2010 Kia Classic)

Career Earnings: $1,331,091

*Victory prior to joining the LPGA

2012 in a Nutshell

- 25 events, 21 cuts made, $600,403 (22), 8 top-10 finishes
- Lost in two sudden-death playoffs, posting runner-up finishes at the ISPS Handa Women's Australian Open and the Manulife Financial LPGA Classic
- Finished 10th on Tour in putting average (29.25)

Career Highlights

- Earned the Louise Suggs Rolex Rookie of the Year award in 2011
- Recorded three top-10 finishes in her rookie year including a runner-up at the U.S. Women's Open
- Won the 2010 Kia Classic Presented by J Golf while a member of the KLPGA Tour. With her victory, earned membership on the LPGA Tour for the 2011 LPGA season
- Also tied for fifth at the 2010 RICOH Women's British Open and T21 at the Kraft Nabisco Championship as a nonmember.
- Captured 11 victories on the KLPGA Tour prior to joining the LPGA
- Turned professional and joined the KLPGA in 2006

Get to know Hee Kyung...

- Known in Korea as the "Supermodel of the Fairways"
- A big fan of tennis, Hee Kyung would like to witness the Wimbledon Finals in the future
- Describes the food served at the welcoming party for the Mizuno Classic in Japan as the best meal she's had while on the road
- If she had one last round of golf to play, she would select Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Juli Inkster to make up her foursome
- Bought a car with her first golf paycheck

www.daum.net/golferheekyung

