

Sarah Kemp

Birthdate: December 7, 1985
Hometown: Tuncurry, Australia
Resides: Breakfast Point, Australia
Education: Australian Institute of Sports
Rookie Year: 2008
Career-best finish: T10 (most recently – 2011
Safeway Classic Presented by Coca-Cola)
Career Earnings: $312,358

2012 in a Nutshell

- 11 events, 3 cuts made, $26,362 (119)
- Recorded season-best T12 at the ISPS Handa Women's Australian Open
- Missed a chunk of the season with a broken left foot that required surgery

Career Highlights

- Carded a career-low 63 in the second round of the 2009 Jamie Farr Owens Corning Classic Presented by Kroger
- Made birdie on each of her final four holes at the 2007 LPGA Qualifying Tournament to tie for ninth and earn exempt status for the 2008 LPGA season
- Recorded six top-10 finishes on the ALPG, finishing second on the Tour's Order of Merit; also recorded three top-10 finishes on the LET
- Was co-medalist at the LET's 2005 Qualifying School Stage 2 as an amateur
- Sarah was the top-ranked junior in New South Wales, Australia in 2001-03 and was the top amateur in 2003

 @kempgolf

 www.sarahkemp.com.au

Get to know Sarah...

- Among her hobbies are surfing, playing tennis and skateboarding
- Known to her fellow Tour players as "Kempy"
- An avid "tweeter" with a great sense of humor, Sarah is one of the golfers on Tour who gives insight into life on Tour and what's going on in her daily life
- Sarah enjoys shopping, especially for shoes
- She credits her parents, Bill McWilliam and Peter Knight as the individuals most influencing her career

See Why It's Different Out Here