Vlowok Ueda

(Oo-eh-da)

Birthdate: June 15, 1986

Hometown: Kumamoto, Japan

Resides: Tokyo, Japan Rookie Year: 2008

LPGA Career Victories: 2* (most recent 2011 Mizuno Classic)

Career Earnings: $1,611,831

2012 in a Nutshell

- 19 events, 13 cuts made, $210,197 (58)
- Recorded season-best T12 at the LPGA LOTTE Championship Presented by J Golf
- Ranked 15th in rounds in the 60's with 15 rounds

Career Highlights

- Became a Rolex First-Time Winner at the 2011 Mizuno Classic, where she defeated Shanshan Feng in a three-hole playoff and carded a career-low 64 in the second round
- Won the 2007 Mizuno Classic as member of the LPGA of Japan (JLPGA)
- During the 2008 RICOH Women's British Open, she became the 15th player in LPGA Tour history to card back-to-back eagles (ninth, par 4; 10th par 5)
- In 2007, became the youngest player in JLPGA history to finish first on the money list
- Recorded 15 top-10 finishes and two wins in 23 events during her amateur career
- Finished runner-up at the Japan Amateur Women's Tournament in 1999 and 2000

Momoko...

Get to know

- Best advice she's ever received? "My parents always tell me nothing is impossible"
- · Teamed up with fellow Japanese players Ai and Mika Mivazato to help raise relief funds after Japan was hit by an earthquake in 2011 through a project called 'Makeruna Nippon-Never Give Up Japan'
- · Says the contact numbers in her phone are her most prized possessions
- Momoko's favorite quote: "Everything happens for a reason"

@Momoko3030

www.momokoueda.com

