

McPherson

(Mic-fear-son) Birthdate: May 28, 1981

Hometown: Conway, S.C. Resides: Tampa, Fla.

Education: University of South Carolina (2003, Sports and Entertainment Management)

Rookie Year: 2007

Career-best finish: T2 (most recently – 2010 CN Canadian Women's Open)

Career Earnings: $1,967,060

2012 in a Nutshell

- 23 events, 12 cuts made, $88,674 (82)
- Recorded season-best T24 at the ISPS Handa Australian Women's Open
- Plagued by left elbow problems throughout the season and underwent surgery on her elbow in November

Career Highlights

- In 2009, recorded career-best ties for second at the Kraft Nabisco Championship and the Wegmans LPGA
- One of three rookies on the 2009 U.S. Solheim Cup Team with a 1-3-0 record
- Recorded a career-high six top-10 finishes in 2008 and 2009
- Finished fourth on the Symetra Tour's 2006 season-ending money list to earn exempt status on the LPGA Tour in 2007
- From 2003-06, she never missed a cut on the Symetra Tour (60 events)
- Was a cast member on the Golf Channel's 2006 Big Break VI: Trump National show
- Recorded seven victories, including two individual Southeastern Conference (SEC) Championship titles, while playing collegiate golf at the University of South Carolina

Get to know Kristy...

- Diagnosed with juvenile rheumatoid arthritis as a child, Kristy is an inspiration to those who suffer from it and serves on the board of directors of the Arthritis National Research Foundation
- A self-described sports nut, Kristy would love to be on ESPN's First Take to argue with Stephen A. Smith and Skip Bayless
- Spent her first golf paycheck ($222) on gas to drive to the next Symetra Tour event
- If you see Kristy's family, don't be surprised if they tell you how well she performed at dance recitals growing up

@kristy2208

www.kristymcphersongolf.com

