

2019 LPGA/Symetra Tour Qualifying Tournament FAQ

Q: What is the LPGA/Symetra Tour Qualifying Tournament?

A: The LPGA/Symetra Tour Qualifying Tournament is a three-stage process (consisting of Stage I, Stage II and LPGA Q-Series) to determine membership status on both the LPGA and the Symetra Tour for the following year.

Q: What is the LPGA Q-Series?

A: The LPGA Q-Series is a two-week tournament which replaced Stage III (Final Stage) of the LPGA/Symetra Qualifying Tournament to determine LPGA playing status for the following year.

Q: What is the field size for Q-Series?

A: The maximum field will be 108 competitors.

Q: What is the format for Q-Series?

A: Two 72-hole, stroke-play events held on consecutive weeks. Scores will be cumulative over the two weeks (i.e. if a competitor shoots 4-under in week one, she begins week two at 4-under). There will be a cut after 108 holes.

Q: What is the purse for Q-Series?

A: The total purse is $150,000 which will be distributed at the end of the two-week competition.

Q: Where will Q-Series be held?

A: The Q-Series will be held at Pinehurst Resort. The first week of competition will be held on Pinehurst No. 6 and the second week will be staged on Pinehurst No. 9.

Q: What is the field criteria for Q-Series?

A: The field is comprised of the following –

- 2019 LPGA Tour Members ranked #101-150, including those tied for 150th place, on the LPGA Official Money List at the conclusion of the 2019 Volunteers of America Classic.
- 2019 Symetra Tour Members ranked #11-35, including those tied for 35th place, on the season-ending Symetra Tour Official Money List
- Players ranked within the Top 75 on the Rolex Women's World Golf Rankings as of the entry deadline for Stage II (August 12, 2019). Players will be ranked in the order of their position on the list as of August 12. If more than 10 players apply through this Category, remaining players will be moved to start the qualifying process at Stage II.
- Qualifiers from Stage II (number to be determined)

Q: What status will be awarded at the end of Q-Series?

A: At a minimum, competitors who finish in positions #1-45, including those tied for 45th place, at the end of Q-Series will receive LPGA Membership in Category 14 on the LPGA Priority List. Competitors who finish outside of the top 20, will also receive Symetra Tour Membership in Category C on the Symetra Tour Priority List.

LPGA MEMBER FAQ

Q: Which LPGA Members will be exempt into Q-Series?

A: LPGA Members ranked #101-150, including those tied for 150th place on the LPGA Official Money List at the conclusion of the 2019 Volunteers of America Classic will compete in Q-Series.

Q: What are the options for an LPGA Member who finishes outside of the Top 150 on the money list and has no LPGA status for the following year?

A: The LPGA Member may compete in Stage II to attempt to advance to Q-Series; or she may join the Symetra Tour in Category H on the Symetra Tour Priority List.

Q: What are the options for an LPGA Member who finishes outside of the Top 150 on the money list, but has LPGA status (Class A or Tournament Winners) for the following year?

A: The LPGA Member may compete in Stage II to attempt to advance to Q-Series to improve her position on the LPGA Priority List, or she can remain an LPGA member with her Class A or Tournament Winner status. She may also compete in Symetra Tour events in Category F on the Symetra Tour Priority List.

Q: What if an LPGA Member ranked #101-150 elects not to compete in Q-Series?

A: If the member is ranked #101-125 on the season-ending LPGA Official Money List, she may remain an LPGA Member and compete out of Category 15 on the LPGA Priority List. If she is ranked #126-150 on the season-ending LPGA Official Money List, she may remain an LPGA Member and compete out of Category 18 on the LPGA Priority List. She may also compete in Symetra Tour events in Category F on the Symetra Tour Priority List.

AMATEUR FAQ

Q: Can an amateur compete in the LPGA Qualifying Tournament?

A: Yes. An amateur competitor may play all stages (Stage I, Stage II and Q-Series) of the LPGA/Symetra Qualifying Tournament as an amateur.

Q: If a competitor competes as an amateur, must she declare professional status at some time during the qualifying process?

A: No. An amateur competitor is not required to declare professional status at any point during the qualifying process, including Q-Series.

Q: If an amateur competitor earns Symetra Tour membership, does she have to turn professional to accept membership?

A: No. An amateur competitor earning Symetra Tour status may join the Symetra Tour as an amateur and she will be eligible to participate in Symetra tournaments (as an amateur) with the status she earned at Stage I, Stage II or the Q-Series.

Q: If a competitor joins the Symetra Tour as an amateur, can she turn professional later?

A: Yes, she may declare professional status at any time or remain as an amateur member throughout the season.

Q: If an amateur competitor earns LPGA Tour membership, must she make a decision to turn professional at the conclusion of Q-Series to accept LPGA membership?

A: No. An amateur competitor earning LPGA status may defer her acceptance of LPGA membership until July 1 the following year. If she does not accept LPGA membership by July 1, she will forfeit her qualification status and no longer be eligible for membership.

Q: Can an amateur competitor play LPGA events based on her performance at Q-Series prior to turning professional?

A: No. As an amateur, she may not participate in LPGA tournaments with the status she earned at Q-Series. However, an amateur competitor may participate in LPGA tournaments following Q-Series as a non-member amateur via sponsor invitation or any other eligibility Category for which she may qualify, such as Rolex Rankings, amateur exemptions, etc.

Q: If an amateur defers acceptance of LPGA membership at the conclusion of Q-Series, what status will she have on the LPGA Priority List if she ultimately declares professional status and joins the LPGA as a member prior to the July 1 deadline?

A: An amateur's position on the LPGA Priority List that is earned at the Q-Series will be held until the competitor turns professional (LPGA Membership will begin on the date she notifies the LPGA that she has accepted professional status). If the player does not turn professional the earlier of either (i) on or before July 1 or (ii) before the administration of the second reshuffle, then her priority list position will fluctuate according to the LPGA Regulations.

AGE QUALIFICATION FAQ

Q: How old does a player need to be to compete in the LPGA Qualifying Tournament?

A: A player may compete in Stage I and Stage II ONLY at the age of 16, provided she turns 17 on or before December 31 in the year in which she is competing in the Qualifying Tournament.

A player may compete in Stage I, Stage II and Q-Series at the age of 17, provided she turns 18 on or before December 31 in the year in which she is competing in the Qualifying Tournament.

Q: What if the player wants to compete, but does not meet the age requirements?

A: If a player does not meet the age requirement for Stage I, Stage II or Q-Series, and she is between the ages of 15 and 18, she may petition the LPGA for a waiver of the minimum age requirement.

Q: If a player turns 17 on or before December 31 in the year in which she is competing in the Qualifying Tournament, can she compete in Q-Series?

A: No. A player may only compete in Q-Series if she will reach the age of 18 in the year during which she competes, or if she petitions and receives a waiver of the minimum age requirement from the LPGA.

Q: What is the process for a player who does not meet the age requirement to petition the LPGA?

A: Players wishing to petition the LPGA must complete a petition application. Applications are reviewed by the LPGA Commissioner and the decision to approve or not approve a petition is at his discretion.
